

ST. NECTARIOS: A SAINT OF OUR TIMES

We all tend to think of saints as being people who lived centuries ago. The popular saint who graces the cover of this morning's Church Bulletin, however, was literally a 20th century saint -- falling asleep in the Lord in 1920! Yes, St. Nectarios can truly be called "a saint of our times."

St. Nectarios was born in Turkey in 1846. At the age of 14, he went to Constantinople to find work. Instead, it can be said that this is really where he found Christ. Nectarios quickly became known as a brilliant scholar and a well-respected theologian. He entered a monastery on the island of Chios at the age of 21, and soon after, he was ordained to the priesthood. The preaching and teaching skills that Nectarios possessed made him a likely candidate for the episcopacy. After becoming a bishop, however, St. Nectarios was victimized by the petty jealousies exhibited by his fellow clergy. Although stripped of some of his hierarchical authority and prestige, St. Nectarios continued to devote his life to serving Christ in whatever way he could. His accomplishments included serving as the dean of a theological school in Alexandria and establishing a convent and school for girls on the small island of Aegina. Scores of pilgrims would flock to Aegina, seeking the wise counsel of this saintly man. After his death, people continued to come and pray before his grave, and many miracles were reported by those who asked for the help and intercession of St. Nectarios. In 1961, he was proclaimed a saint, only 41 years after his death. Known as a "healing saint," St. Nectarios is the Patron Saint of cancer patients.

Resurrectional Apolytikion Mode 3
Let the heavens be glad. Let the earth rejoice exceedingly. For the Lord has shown strength with his arm. He trampled death by death. He became the first-born of the dead.
Out of the belly of Hades, He has rescued us, and to the world He has granted the great mercy.

Hymn of the Church
As a pillar unshaken of Christ's holy Church, and lamp ever-burning to all the world you emerged, O wise Haralambos; in all the world you shined, with the martyrdom you suffered, you dispelled the dark night, of the idols, O blessed; whence, with courage do intercede, to Christ that we may be saved.

Kontakion Mode 4
The Savior's most pure and immaculate temple, the very precious bridal chamber and Virgin, who is the sacred treasure of the glory of God, on this day is introduced into the House of the Lord, and with herself she brings the grace in the divine Spirit. She is extolled by the Angels of God. A heavenly tabernacle is she.

Epistle

The reading is from Paul’s Letter to the Galatians.

Brethren, I would have you know that the gospel which was preached by me is not according to man. For I did not receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but it came through a revelation of Jesus Christ. For you have heard of my former life in Judaism, how I persecuted the church of God violently and tried to destroy it; and I advanced in Judaism beyond many of my own age among my people, so extremely zealous was I for the traditions of my fathers. But when God who had set me apart before I was born, and had called me through his grace, was pleased to reveal his Son in me, in order that I might preach him among the Gentiles, I did not confer with flesh and blood, nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me, but I went away into Arabia; and again I returned to Damascus. Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas, and remained with him fifteen days. But I saw none of the other apostles except James the Lord’s brother.

Gospel

The reading is from the Holy Gospel according to Luke.

At that time, a lawyer stood up to put Jesus to the test, saying, “Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?” He said to him, “What is written in the law? How do you read?” And he answered, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself.” And he said to him, “You have answered right; do this, and you will live.” But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?” Jesus replied, “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was; and when he saw him, he had compassion, and went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine; then he set him on his own beast and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, ‘Take care of him; and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back.’ Which of these three, do you think, proved neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers?” He said, “The one who showed mercy on him.” And Jesus said to him, “Go and do likewise.”
